

MARIA ACOSTA APPOINTED AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER, JCCA

June 2017 - Bridge Partners is delighted to announce the appointment of Maria Acosta as Chief Financial Officer for the JCCA based in New York City.

In her new role at JCCA (<https://www.jccany.org/>), Maria will oversee all financial operations of the organization and lead the agency's transition to managed care. She will also develop strategies, manage partnerships and business relationships with government, private payers and other providers, and manage the implementation of Electronic Health Records.

Maria has more than two decades of experience in institutional financial affairs. Before joining JCCA, she was CFO for 1199SEIU Benefit and Pension Funds where she was responsible for healthcare benefit and pension funds serving 400,000 working and retired healthcare workers and their families.

Prior to that, she was CFO for Planned Parenthood Federation of America, responsible for all the financial aspects of this international women's healthcare Federation, its Foundation, and Political Action Committees. Previously, she was CFO of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, COO for United Homecare in Miami, and the owner and President of a consulting firm.

She received her MBA from the University of Miami.
