

JEFFREY MALLOY APPOINTED AS HEAD OF FINANCE OF OCEANS 5

October 2023 - Bridge Partners is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeffrey Malloy as Head of Finance at Oceans 5.

Oceans 5 is an international funders' collaborative dedicated to stopping overfishing, establishing protected areas, and constraining offshore oil and gas development – three of the highest ocean conservation priorities identified by marine scientists. Founded in 2011, the organization has provided over $150 million in grants, involving more than 130 organizations in 90 regions and countries. Its activities are directed by its Board of Advisors, a group of 22 of the world's leading marine philanthropic institutions and individuals. In addition, Oceans 5 also houses two directed funds, and anticipates adding a third this year, each dedicated to grant-making in complementary areas of marine conservation. Oceans 5 is a sponsored project of Rockefeller Philanthropy Advisors (RPA).

Jeff joins Oceans 5 from the Heising-Simons Foundation and Action Fund where he most recently served as Chief Operating Officer and Treasurer. As Head of Finance at Oceans 5, he will serve as a collaborative leader, strategic partner, financial steward, and advisor as the organization continues to grow. He will guide the organization's financial operations and strategy and lead Oceans 5 to its next level of financial strength and operational efficiency.

He holds a Bachelor of Science, magna cum laude in Accountancy from Rider University and is a Certified Public Accountant.
