

LAUREN FUJIOKA APPOINTED AS GENERAL CORPORATE COUNSEL
SELLERS DORSEY & ASSOCIATES, LLC

July 2021 - Bridge Partners is pleased to announce the appointment of Lauren Fujioka as General Corporate Counsel at Sellers Dorsey & Associates, LLC.

Founded in 2000, Sellers Dorsey is a rapidly growing national healthcare consulting firm dedicated to finding and implementing solutions to the challenges of the financing and delivery of public healthcare for underserved and economically disadvantaged populations. The firm's services include securing additional federal resources for states and providers to improve the healthcare of the Medicaid population, strategic business development consulting services to Medicaid managed care plans, other vendors, and investors seeking to understand and expand their footprint in state Medicaid programs. Their teams work together to ensure that technical, policy and political solutions are created to ensure successful results for their clients.

Sellers Dorsey has been nationally recognized for its work in over 30 states and for Fortune 500 companies and significant stakeholders in healthcare. The firm has an industry-leading team of consultants and thought leaders from the worlds of policy, government, business, and industry. Sellers Dorsey provides guidance to a vast array of clients who work within the public healthcare system. Their strong relationships with state and federal agencies inform their work, enabling them to create solutions that meet the needs of policy makers and providers while serving the population these systems protect. The firm's reputation is one of creativity and accomplishment.

Lauren was most recently Assistant General Counsel (VP, Contracts) & Corporate Compliance Officer at MAXIMUS, Inc. (NYSE: MMS) where, among other things, she oversaw the global compliance program and managed a contracts team for a company with over $3 billion in annual revenue. She began her legal career at the Maryland Legal Aid Bureau followed by private practice with the BMW Law Group in Bethesda, Md.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts, with specialized honors, from York University and a Juris Doctor from Syracuse University College of Law.

Lauren joined Sellers Dorsey in June as a key senior advisor and business counselor to the Firm's CEO and executive leadership team. She also serves as the Firm's corporate secretary and ethics officer. She is based in northern Virginia.
